

Government Contracts

VF&N's government contracts practice counsels its clients on all aspects of the contracting process, including the review and assessment of the request for proposals; the representations and certifications required by the contracting party; agreements between the prime and subcontractors; qui tam recoveries; teaming arrangements and corporate partnering; compliance with governing FAR and DFARS.

Our firm is experienced with defending against and prosecuting bid protest and federal court litigation related to government contract issues.

SERVICES

- Advice to reps and certs in bid proposals
- Bid protest and federal court litigation
- Compliance guidance for FAR and DFARS
- Contract negotiation and performance evaluation discussions
- Review and counseling regarding request for proposals and quotes
- Section 8(a) contractor and minority set-aside issues
- Teaming and subcontractor agreements
- Qui tam disclosure and recovery