

Criminal, Traffic & White-Collar Crimes

If you have been charged with a felony, misdemeanor, or traffic violation, or have been advised that you or your organization is under investigation for a white-collar crime, you need to take steps to ensure that your interests are fully protected.

We provide a clear understanding of all aspects of your case and utilize our vast investigations and negotiations experience to reach the most favorable result for our clients, all the while preparing for any possible trial. Above all, we keep you informed of the status of your case and all available options.

VF&N's Criminal Defense team is composed of seasoned litigators and a former prosecutor with a wealth of trial and appellate experience in state and federal courts. We have worked in courts throughout Virginia, and are familiar with the local prosecutors and judges here in Prince William County and Northern Virginia. Let us leverage our experience and skills in your case.
