

Martin R. Crim, Shareholder

MCrim@vfnlaw.com

(703) 479-3175

Municipal | Agritourism

Religious Institutions

Martin Crim is a shareholder at Vanderpool, Frostick & Nishanian, and has been practicing law for over twenty-five years, primarily for cities, towns, and other local governments. His practice areas include land use development, code enforcement, eminent domain, social services, tax valuation and collection, human resources, Freedom of Information Act, water and sewer, electric utilities, Virginia Public Procurement Act, and municipal franchises.

Education

- Juris Doctor, T.C. Williams School of Law at the University of Richmond, 1991 magna cum laude
- Bachelor of Arts, Duke University, 1984 cum laude

Bar & Court Admissions

- Virginia State Bar
- Prince William County Bar Association, Member

Credentials, Recognition & Civic Activities

- AV Preeminent rating, Martindale-Hubbell's highest professional achievement
- Virginia Business Magazine Local Government/ Legislative "Legal Elite" recognition in 2020
- Town Attorney, Culpeper, Occoquan, Haymarket, & Middleburg
- Assistant Town Attorney, Herndon
- 2016 Local Government Attorneys of Virginia Special Project Award
- Chair, Local Government Attorneys of Virginia Practice Group for Social Services, 2013-present
- Board of Directors, Matthews Center for Visual Learning, 2013-present

"Martin Crim has represented the Town of Culpeper for more than six years. His knowledge in municipal law provides us with expertise in not only routine matters but complex situations as well. The entire firm of VF&N provides outstanding professional service that local governments truly appreciate." - Chris Hively
